1. Purpose & Scope

The aim of this policy is to state our approach towards employing people who have criminal convictions.

We are committed to equality of opportunity for all job applicants and aim to select people for employment on the basis of their individual skills, abilities, experience, knowledge and, where appropriate, qualifications and training.

However, Droylsden Academy is an exempt employer as defined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions Order 1975) and as such, we have a lawful basis for requesting an enhanced DBS disclosure certificate for all employees. In addition, Droylsden Academy is a regulated activity provider and for most posts, we have a statutory duty to check that the individual is not barred from regulated work with children and / or adults.

The safeguarding of children is of paramount importance to us and the scrutiny of any unspent cautions or convictions and those which would not be protected under the Ministry of Justice filtering rules is an essential and non-negotiable part of the pre-employment check process.

We will consider ex-offenders for employment on their individual merits. Our approach towards employing ex-offenders differs depending on whether the job is or is not exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

Jobs covered by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

We will not automatically refuse to employ a particular individual just because they had a previous criminal conviction.

During the recruitment process, we will ask shortlisted job applicants to disclose any unspent cautions or convictions but will not ask job applicants questions about criminal history that would be filtered or protected, nor expect them to disclose any protected convictions. The successful applicant will be asked to apply for a Enhanced DBS certificate.

If an applicant has a caution or conviction that is unspent and if the nature of the offence is relevant to their suitability for the job for which they have applied, we will review the individual circumstances of the case and may, at our discretion, decline to select the individual for employment.

Jobs that are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

The vast majority of the roles we are seeking to recruit are covered by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (roles in regulated positions and in Further Education provision). In these cases, Droylsden Academy will require shortlisted applicants to disclose all unspent convictions or bind overs in addition to any criminal history that would not be filtered. Even in these circumstances, however, we will not refuse to employ a particular individual unless the nature of the conviction has relevance to the job for which the individual has applied.

As a result of amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act in 2013 and 2020, cautions and convictions that meet specified criteria should not be disclosed by applicants and must not be taken into account by potential employers. We encourage all applicants to use the flowchart and guidance provided by Nacro and to seek legal or impartial advice before completing their self-disclosure. We will not take into account any criminal history that would be protected or filtered, even if it is subsequently disclosed on the DBS certificate.

Droylsden Academy will, once we have selected the person to whom we wish to offer employment, make a joint application to the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) for an enhanced certificate (with the relevant DBS barred list(s) check if the post is in regulated activity). Where the individual is a member of the DBS update service in the relevant workforce and at the required level, the organisation will, with the individual's permission, carry out a status check on any current certificate.

Droylsden Academy is committed to ensuring that all information provided about an individual's criminal convictions, including any information released in disclosures, is used fairly and stored and handled appropriately and in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulations and the Data Protection Act 2018. Data held on file about an individual's criminal convictions will be held only as long as it is required for employment and / or safeguarding purposes and will not be disclosed to any unauthorised person.

2. The Process

- As a Regulated Activity provider (RAP) almost all paid employees at Droylsden Academy are in regulated activity and therefore subject to an enhanced DBS certificate with check(s) of the relevant DBS barred list(s)
- In relation to volunteers and contractors, we only request a DBS certificate after a thorough risk assessment has indicated that a check is lawful and relevant to the position concerned
- For those positions where an enhanced DBS check is required, all application forms, recruitment advertising and recruitment briefs will contain a statement that an enhanced DBS certificate (with barred list check(s) where relevant) will be requested in the event of the individual being offered the position and an explanation of when in the recruitment process criminal information will be requested and considered
- All shortlisted applicants are required to complete a criminal record self-disclosure to be returned no less than one day prior to the interview date. This information is to be sent to HR Manager/Staff Welfare and Well-being. Failure to return the self-disclosure will result in the offer of interview being withdrawn. We will ensure that the self-disclosure information will only be seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process, please see Appendix 1
- The criminal history self-disclosure will include information for shortlisted applicants on the importance of seeking legal advice and the contact details of organisations that can provide impartial advice
- We ensure that all those who are involved in the recruitment process have been suitably trained to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of offences. We also ensure that they have received appropriate guidance on the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders, e.g. the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (exceptions order 1975) (as amended 2013 & 2020) and know how to access advice and support (e.g. from HR, external adviser, NACRO) and relevant registered bodies
- At interview, or in a separate discussion, the recruitment selection panel will ensure that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or related concerns that might be relevant to the position. Failure to reveal information that would not be filtered could lead to withdrawal of an offer of employment
- All potential employees are guided to the Disclosure and Barring Service Code of Practice and a copy is made available on request
- We undertake to discuss any relevant matter revealed on a DBS certificate with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment. This discussion and any subsequent risk assessment may be undertaken by the Headteacher or by another appointed person. If the DBS check reveals any matching information against the DBS barred list(s) or any criminal conviction which precludes them from working with children [and / or adults] the applicant is deemed non-appointable. In this circumstance, we would notify the Local Authority Designated Officer in line with the local multi-agency procedures.

Droylsden Academy is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and we expect all staff to share this commitment. This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974; pre-employment checks will be carried out, references will be sought and successful candidates will be subject to an enhanced DBS check and other relevant checks with statutory bodies.

We comply with the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) code of practice and have a written policy on the recruitment of ex-offenders, both of which are available on request. As you have been shortlisted, you are required to declare any relevant convictions, adult cautions or other matters which may affect your suitability to work with children. As a result of amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (exceptions order 1975) in 2013 and 2020, some minor offences are now protected (filtered) and should not be disclosed to potential employers, and employers cannot take these offences into account.

Please read the information here before answering the following questions. If you are unsure whether you need to disclose criminal information, you should seek legal advice or you may wish to contact Nacro or Unlock for impartial advice. There is more information on filtering and protected offences on the Ministry of Justice website.
