Additional grounds for complaint relating to results and post-results:

Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Droylsden Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by raising the concern in writing to the Head of Centre.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to the Head of Centre. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within 2 school days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must complete and return a complainants form.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of Centre or other appointment senior leader will investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within 10 school days.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must follow the centres internal appeals procedure. Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within 2 school days.

The appeal will be referred to the Head of Centre.

It will be the responsibility of the Head of Centre to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
